

University of Hawai'i Sea Grant College Program and UH Water Resources Research Center present:

Linking nearshore nitrogen chemistry to terrestrial environments using groundwater modeling and invasive seaweeds

DECEMBER 3, 2019

11:00 am to noon

UH Mānoa Campus, Hawai'i Institute of Geophysics

Room #210

Celia Smith, Professor of Botany, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa and co-director, Marine Biology Graduate Program

Robert Whittier, Environmental Health Specialist, Groundwater Protection, Safe Drinking Water Branch, Department of Health, State of Hawai'i